Firemen and equipment vie for honors

FRANKFORT — Thirty-six pieces of fire equipment looked as though they were on their way to anything but a fire Sunday afternoon as they wound their way through the tree canopied streets of Frankfort.

Volunteer firemen from throughout the DesPlaines Valley Fireman's Mutual Aid Association paraded their finest of fire fighting apparatus past the judges' stand on Kansas Street during the annual event.

Righton Park with a single truck and the department's auxiliary officers in a car and an auxiliary marching unit took first place honors.

Mokena was second place with the department's all-white truck and emergency unit and the men in their dress uniforms.

Sauk Village, parading a truck and auxiliary officers in a car, took the third place honors. Also, the Sauk Village Junior Firemen's drill team was named the best drill unit.

Each unit was judged on equipment, condition of equipment and appearance of personnel. The age of the equipment was not considered by the four-man judging team.

Members of the judging group included Art Weber, deputy state fire marshal, Joliet; Glen Warning, Frankfort village president; Vern Dallieger, special investigator for the state fire New Lenox marshal; and Eugene Gerardi of Frankfort.

Departments in the parade included: Frankfort retired members' car; Frankfort, seven units; Sauk Village, one unit and auxiliary car; Elwood, one; Plainfield, one; New Lenox, two; Romeoville, one; Lewis College, one; Troy, one unit and a car; Lockport, one; Richton Park, one, marching auxiliary and car; Mokena, one truck and one emergency unit; Steger Estates, one and marching auxiliary unit; East Joliet, two; Homer, one; Manhattan, one; Peotone, two; Rockdale, one; and Matteson, one.

Four color guards took part as well as the Frankfort Girl Scouts' marching unit.

Residents protest

MOKENA — Concerned residents of Mokena met with village officials last week to determine a practical means of support which would enable the village to lend financial assistance to the long-standing Brightwood sewer and water project.

In past months angry words lead to bitter accusations that some people of Brightwood, a 14-year-old subdivision incorporated into Mokena two years ago, were delaying the process which will ultimately provide city water and sanitary sewers for the area.

Brightwood, now using septic tanks and wells, was protesting the proposed cost of the project as too high. The village engineer had estimated the cost to the property owner at about $36 a linear foot.

At the meeting on Oct. 2, Mayor Will Tuttle, Trustee Anthony Dina, Village engineer George Barber and Village Legal Counsel George C. Sangmeister admitted to representatives of Brightwood that their protests were not stalling the issue.

Sangmeister also remarked at that time that village officials cannot be held responsible for articles, including quotes, that have appeared in the newspapers in the past months. (Mrs. Les Konicki, Mrs. Bill Ryan and Thomas Lee, chairpersons of the Committee of Interested Citizens Mokena were distressed over adverse publicity, and sought a retraction of the unfavorable statements alleged to have been made.)

Clearly, projects of this nature, involving considerable expense to the taxpayers, as well as extensive engineering and research by the village board cannot be completed in rapid succession. But neither is the problem insurmountable. The Committee of Interested Citizens of Mokena is confident that it can be worked out.

"The village officials are fully competent men," said Mrs. Konicki, "and what they need right now is the cooperation and support of the people of this area. Really, this is exactly what we are trying to do." Mrs. Konicki went on to explain that she is working in cooperation with village officials, and with assistance from the group's attorney, Arthur Lennon, of Murphy, Timm, Lennon and Spesia legal firm in Joliet, to obtain a Federal Grant from the Department of Housing and Urban development.

Approximately $225,000.00 has been requested of HUD. This could reduce their assessment by as much as $1,800 per lot.

"We will know within 90 days whether the grant has been approved; if it is, the money will be forthcoming by the first of April. If the grant is denied us, we still will not have delayed the project, because by that time the village's legal papers will just be completed, and bids will follow shortly thereafter; consequently, Mokena residents in the Brightwood area feel that their work is a positive, constructive thing," said Mrs. Konicki. "We are truly trying to reduce the cost of this project for both the village and its residents."

Lennon reported to the village representatives that money also can be raised through a Public Benefit Tax Levy, which could provide as much as $30,000 over a 10-year period; additionally, money can be obtained through the use of general obligation bonds now and in 1977 when some of the current bonds are retired. Such bonds would be paid off thru a tax on all real estate in the village. Lennon also observed that many municipalities assume about one-fourth the cost of local improvements.

Mayor Tuttle indicated to the group that the board is now doing research to ascertain possible ways in which the local government can help the committee.

Clerk Woodard reveals tax rates for Will County

WILL COUNTY — Tax rates for all the taxing bodies in Will County have been established by the office of County Clerk Clara Hartley Woodard with Martin Gregorich in charge.

For those who want a quick reading of the tax bills to come just break down the valuations received by postcard from the Board of Review into hundreds and multiply by the total rate.

For those living in the Village of Mokena the total tax rate is $6.6830 per $100 assessed valuation.

The total rate for those residing in the Village of Frankfort is $6.1374.

If one is a resident of the Village of New Lenox the total tax rate is $6.6291.

These figures include the rates of the county, forest preserve district, township tax, poor relief, road and bridge, village, park district, library, fire protection district, grade school district, high school district and junior college.

The tax rate for the Village of Frankfort is .8885; for Mokena, $1.0318; for New Lenox, $1.0002. These figures cover outstanding bonds as well as corporate taxes, it was explained.

The Lincoln-Way High School District tax rate is $2.152. A portion of New Lenox Township is in Joliet Township High School District No. 204. The tax rate for District 204 is $1.6663.

Grade School District 122, New Lenox Township, has a tax rate of $1.950 for $100 assessed valuation; Grade School District 159, Mokena, has a rate of $1.9588; Frankfort Grade School District 157-C has a rate of $1.5918 and Summit Hill District, which includes Arbury Hills, Ann Rutledge and Frankfort Square, has a rate of $2.1156.

The Frankfort Park District rate is .1768; the Mokena Park District rate is .1367; the New Lenox Park District rate is 10 cents per $100 assessed valuation.

The Frankfort Fire protection District rate is .095; the Mokena Fire Protection District rate is .1588, and the New Lenox Fire Protection District rate is .1930. Library tax rates are; New Lenox Town, .1370; Frankfort Public, .1083; Mokena District, .12 cents per $100 assessed valuation. The Joliet Junior College tax rate is .2221.

Residents of Frankfort and New Lenox Townships who reside outside the villages need only subtract the amount of the village tax to get their total rate, providing they are in the same school, park, fire protection and library districts.

Tax bills are in the process of being readied for mailing, it was reported by County Treasurer Kent Bosworth and recently the county board set Dec. 15 as the final deadline for the payment of the 1971 tax bills, more than six months after the first installment of real estate taxes were due as well as the entire amount of the personal property tax.

Some of the taxing bodies have had to borrow money to tide them over the payless period. This borrowing has been on a tax anticipation warrant basis. These warrants are sold at a set interest rate and are redeemable out of the first tax money received by the borrower.

Bosworth plans to use deputy collectors out in the rural areas as a convenience for residents of the outlying sections. The office of town collector has been done away with and the county treasurer is collector of taxes.

Responsibility of all

MOKENA — This year October 8 through 14 will mark the observance of Fire Prevention Week. President Richard Nixon and the Governor-General of Canada have issued proclamations to all citizens to bring their attention to the prevention of fire.

Traditionally, Fire Prevention Week is the calendar week which includes the anniversary of the Great Chicago Fire of 1871. One hundred and one years ago, during a 30-hour period, 17,430 buildings were destroyed, 250 persons died and 100,000 persons were left homeless by the blaze.

The Mokena Fire Prevention Unit, headed by Walter Lock, will visit area schools during the week to speak to children on fire prevention.

At that time Firemen will distribute posters for children interested in participating in the annual coloring contest. Winners of the contest will be announced and presented with prizes at the annual Halloween Parade.

Broucek: Trustees are angry

NEW LENOX — Two members of the New Lenox Village Board last week leveled some fairly serious charges against Public Water Commission Director Robert Broucek, among them that he has ignored the village with regard to explanations concerning the interim financing of the proposed $50 million water facility now being considered.

Village Trustees William Brown and Lutz Guenther contend that even though the commission was formed some 18 months ago, never once has its director appeared before the New Lenox Board to present specifics of the financing involved in the project that will eventually provide water from the Kankakee River for the seven member communities: Rockdale, Romeoville, Joliet, New Lenox, Frankfort, Lockport and Mokena. Also, at last weeks meeting, Brown expressed the opinion that the estimated cost of research, $900,000, should be justified. He feels that the figure is much too high — almost a million dollars — just to get the project ready for bidding.

Also, both Buenther and Brown voiced concern that the commission was forcing its ideas on the seven municipalities involved. However, they admitted that they are in favor of the commission's whole concept, and basically were angered with Director Broucek's lack of communication with them on the matter.

Meanwhile, Buenther and Brown were appointed to serve as representatives of the village at future commission meetings, and will report results of those meetings to the New Lenox Board.

Other business at the Oct. 4 meeting included a request from Levitt Residential Communities, Inc., that the village consider continuing the water line in existence an additional 800 feet along Haven Avenue to loop the present water lines with that along Haven Avenue to provide a continuous water flow. Estimated cost of the action is $9,000 to $10,000, and while the village is in accord with the proposal, President pro tem James Warning indicated that it would be presently financially impossible for the village to undertake the responsibility. Consequently, even though the property in question does not belong to the Levitt company, it will nevertheless be up to that company to provide the additional water lines at this time.

Concluding business at the meeting was the acceptance by the board of Village of New Lenox Ordinance No. 299, which provides for the regulation of the manufacture establishment, installation and operation or use of alarm systems within the village.

Hunters must file according to law

SPRINGFIELD — With the approach of the autumn hunting season, Law Enforcement Director Herbert D. Brown recently urged all Illinois hunters to file early for their Firearm Owners Identification cards (FOI), required by state law for anyone who carries a firearm. Brown said it takes two to three weeks to process a card for issuance. The fall season is the peak period for FOI card requests. The firearm owners identification section of the Illinois bureau of identification, which processes the cards, handles some 400 requests a day, but this amount doubles to 800 requests a day during the hunting season, thereby slowing too some extent the rate of applicant approval and issuance. "We are fast approaching the peak hunting season of October and November. In order to hunt legally in Illinois, a hunter must own and carry such a card," the director said. Persons wishing to obtain cards should send their application and a $5 check or money order to: Illinois Bureau of Identification, Firearm Owners Identification Section, 1035 Outer Park Drive West, Springfield, Ill. 62704. The $5 charge, Brown said, is not profit to the state. The legislature authorized the department to use $2 of the $5 fee for its expenses in processing the cards with $3 of the fee paid by the Department of Law Enforcement into the state's fish and game fund operated by the Illinois Department of Conservation for stocking of fish in lakes and rivers and protection of wildlife in state game preserves. Since the act went into effect on July 1, 1968, more than 1.3 million FOI cards have been issued. More than 8,000 firearm cards have been revoked or denied by the state.

TINLEY PARK — The Church of the Nazarene is anticipating the starting of a Sunday School class for retarded children, ages approximately 3 years of age to 7 years old. Anyone interested in bringing a child to this class is asked to check with Reverend Harris or Edna Roach.

Merlin's
STEPBACK IN TIME
A heavy wooden door is the time barrier. Outside the door, today, 1972 grasps at shoppers and visitors while inside, behind that heavy door - the entrance to Merlin's Inn - the atmosphere of 5th Century England soothes the senses. To conjure up the world of the mythical, mystical Merlin, a favorite of King Arthur and his Knights of the Round Table, members of the Merlo family, Dr. James Merlo, Jo Merlo and Jerry Merlo, have created a 20th Century castle where every guest is treated like royalty and served food which is fit for kings and queens, princes and princesses. The warmth of dark beamed ceilings, a fireplace of regal proportions, medieval weaponry and tapestries form the core of the family restaurant called Merlin's which is wrapped in the reflected light from the stained glass windows surrounding the dining area. There too, the magic of Merlin is etched in the colored leaded glass which bears the symbols of Merlin's craft, a crescent moon and a crystal ball. But Merlin would have been hard pressed to create the excellent food served there and the maidens of old would find it difficult to duplicate the gracious, courteous service which is a trademark. For casual family dining at its finest it's Merlin's Inn, located in the Park Forest Plaza, open Monday through Thursday, 11 a.m. to 2 a.m. and Friday and Saturday, 11 a.m. to 3 a.m.

Mehling receives okay to proceed in Maycliff

ORLAND PARK — After many months of discussion Builder Cliff Mehling finally obtained the 'go ahead' on Maycliff Silver Lake Estates Unit number 7. Planning Commission Chairman Bob Miller and Secretary Ralph Caron signed the copy with the approval of the commission on Tues. Oct. 3. Miller, who had the commission's previous approval to sign the copy subject to Mehling's satisfying certain requirements, said he wanted further information from a professional engineer regarding the water problem in the area. The commission chairman questioned whether houses with basements should be built on the land. The land is a filled in swamp that was a retention pond years ago. Village Planner William Lawrence said the commission had an obligation to protect prospective buyers. Engineer adviser Harrison Smith suggested that each home have individual boring tests and that a review by authorities before a basement be considered. Lawrence said the soil at 143rd Street and 87th Avenue was fill and peat and he would want soil test engineers to attest to the bearing capacity of the soil as well as the drainage conditions. Mehling told the commission that his soil test engineers will conform to the commissions requests. Smith told the commission there is a good drainage plan for the area on file. In another water problem between homes at 145th Street and 145th Place Mehling went on record as being willing to correct the drainage if necessary, however, the commission felt that any such problem should be resolved between the builder and owner. A lot plan was approved for George F. Carroll in Laquana Woods. Carroll wants to enlarge his lot for a large home at Hacienda Lane and Selva Lane.

Dist. 135 asks utility for sewer

ORLAND PARK — Elementary School District 135 will approach Citizens Utilities for permission to connect the school's 10-acre 82nd Avenue site into the utility company's new forced sewer main crossing the school's property.

Although the school district does not have immediate plans to build on the site which is west of 82nd Avenue, north of 143rd Street 660 feet, the district voted Monday night to request the hook up for future construction on the property.

Citizens Utilities is paying $4.50 a running foot to neighboring property owners to go across their property. The district, which owns 440 front footage, will suggest to Citizens that the utility company provide the tap in and the district will not charge an easement fee.

Supt. Norbert Jerling said Monday that Citizens had estimated that it would cost $15,000 to tap into the forced main at the school site. A lift station and auxiliary power source would have to be provided.

Citizens Utilities is installing the forced main from the Westhaven-Fernway area to 131st Street where it will tie in with the recently completed interceptor line of the Metropolitan Sanitary District.

In another area District 135 is looking at a 20-acre site which would provide necessary land for a multiple building program. Location of the site was not released by the district during preliminary negotiation.

Supt. Jerling said Monday that the $15,000 per acre asking price is more than what the board is willing to offer and negotiations are being conducted between the property owner and the district's legal counsel.

Supt. Jerling reports that land appraisers have been solicited by both the board and property owner in order to reach terms.

The site, which probably would be used before the 82nd Avenue location, would contain "at least two buildings", according to Jerling. It is serviced by both Orland Park sewer and water, making it more attractive than the 82nd Avenue location.

The superintendent points out that the four sites the district is now using are "saturated" and that an additional five to 10 sites will be needed to keep pace with the anticipated population growth in the district.

Maycliff urges letter blitz

ORLAND PARK — Homeowners in the Maycliff subdivision have been asked to blitz the Cook County Zoning Board of Appeals with letters of objection concerning a proposed zoning change near the development.

Harrison Smith, a Maycliff resident, distributed the Zoning Board's address at the Maycliff Homeowners' Association meeting Wednesday night, Oct. 4. Acting Chairman Robert Dowdy urged the property owners to write the board, objecting to the proposed rezoning of 80 acres north of 143rd Street from single family to multiple family apartments.

The Maycliff organization was formed two weeks ago with the initial objective of fighting the proposed apartment complex being planned by Hillcrest Builders, Inc.

Smith said letters to the zoning board should be addressed to: Chicago Civic Center, Clark & Randolph Streets, Chicago, Ill. 60602, Attn. Paul Marcy, secretary.

Eighty-four Maycliff residents were in attendance at the second meeting of the new homeowners group held at the Administration Center. Dowdy reported that 108 of the 152 families in Maycliff have joined the group. A $10 membership fee is being asked to be used for legal fees in fighting the apartment development.

Maycliff resident Attorney Kenneth Fricker has been retained by his neighbors to handle the legal battle. The subdivisions of Villa West, Laguna Woods and Silver Lake Dells will be asked to join Maycliff in the rezoning controversy.

Also opposing the high density development are the Village of Orland Park, the Orland Park Fire Protection District and School Districts 135 and 230.

A spokesman for the Maycliff organization said the group was not so opposed to the development of the 80 acres as it was objecting to the high density (more than 17 units per acre would be allowed) and the quality of construction.

The Maycliff spokesman said she felt the homeowners wanted some kind of assurance from the developers that the density of the residential development would be lowered and that the quality of construction would be improved.

The next meeting of the Maycliff group will be held Wednesday, Nov. 1, 8 p.m., Administration Building. Charter and bylaws are being prepared and Chairman Dowdy said they would be ready for reading at the Nov. 1 meeting.

Maycliff residents interested in joining the association are to contact their block captain, Dowdy or Mrs. Dan Peters, secretary.

Automobile mishap takes life of girl

ORLAND PARK — Miss Nancy Zarth, 17, of 9149 W. 147th St. was killed and eight other persons were injured in a two car collision north of Matteson.

The accident occurred at 11 p.m. Saturday night. Miss Zarth was pronounced dead at 4 a.m. Sunday.

Cook County Sheriff's Police said Miss Zarth was a passenger in a car driven by Miss Diane Seifert, 22, of 704 S. Spring Drive La Grange. Miss Seifert's car was northbound on Cicero Avenue at Vollmer Road behind a vehicle driven by Robert Soltys, 20, of 12734 Honore St. Blue Island.

Police said both cars apparently left the roadway and traveled for some 30 feet on unpaved shoulder. Both cars then returned to the road, traveled some distance and Soltys' car turned over onto the Seifert Car. According to reports both cars burst into flames.

Miss Seifert was in fair condition in La Grange Memorial Hospital, and Soltys' and two others were in fair condition in South Suburban Hospital in Hazel Crest.

The other four injured were treated and released.

Funeral Services were held Oct. 10 at the Schmaedeke Funeral Home in Worth. Miss Zarth was taken to Christ Lutheran Church in Orland Park. Burial was at Christ Lutheran Cemetery, Orland Park.

Miss Zarth was a 1972 June graduate from Carl Sandburg High School. She is survived by her parents Walter and Rose Zarth, sister Linda Melling, brother Thomas Zarth, and grandparents Ann and Bill Brown and Walter and Gertrude Zarth.

For high school seniors

Here's chance at $500

The Illinois Editors' Traffic Safety Seminar again has invited all Illinois high school seniors to compete for 10 $500 Chicago Motor Club scholarship grants which will be awarded to winners of the seminar's seventh annual traffic safety essay contest. The top 10 scholarship awards will be awarded to five boys and five girls.

All high school seniors currently enrolled in public, parochial and private school in Illinois are eligible to submit essays on the topic: If I Had The Power... (a) This Is The One Thing I Would Do To Reduce Traffic Accidents, (b) And Here Are My Reasons!!

These original essays are to be 500 words or less and must be submitted to Seminar Headquarters, 66 East South Water Street, Chicago, Illinois 60601, with a postmark no later than Dec. 31, 1972.

Gerald W. Cavanagh, president of the Motor Club, in authorizing issuance of the scholarship grants for the seventh consecutive year, said "The Chicago Motor Club feels the seminar contest continues to be an intelligent approach to accident prevention because it is encouraging the coming generation of drivers to think constructively about traffic safety. Total involvement in traffic safety among the next generation of drivers is essential if we are to make significant reductions in our highway death and accident toll."

Paul D. Coffman, Seminar president and publisher of the Star-Sentinel Newspapers, Melrose Park, announced that a special seminar committee headed by Floyd Fulle, publisher, Suburban Progress, Schiller Park, will be in charge of the contest which has been endorsed by Dr. Michael J. Bakalis, Illinois superintendent of public instruction; by Harry Fitzhugh, executive secretary of the Illinois High School Association; and by leading Catholic, Lutheran and Jewish high school officials throughout the state.

Final contest judging will be done by a panel of University of Illinois educators headed by Dr. A. E. Florio, professor of safety education. Winners will be honored at the seminar's 16th annual meeting on May 11, 1973 at Holiday Inn of Decatur. In addition to the scholarship grants, the Chicago Motor Club will present $25 U.S. savings bonds to the 25 runners-up in the contest.

Built of honesty

Freedom of press has survived

Freedom of the press is a right of the people.

That's how it started, and nothing has changed the basic premise since the First Amendment made its guarantee of a free press for the people of the United States.

It is a freedom that has been misunderstood, sometimes abused, and occasionally apologized for by members of the news profession — hence the admonition that freedom of the press is a right of all the people and not an exclusive prerogative of those in the business of news dissemination.

While it is true that freedom of the press is a right of all the people, however, it is not true that it is also not a right of those who are in the newspaper business.

Freedom of speech and of the press includes the personal right of anyone, including the press, to freely communicate with others who will listen or read. This, of course, is not advocacy of restriction of public access to newspapers or of irresponsibility of newspapers.

The question, if there is one, is simply who else but the press in its personal exercise of discretion has the right to decide what is or is not published? It is a question of tight of control.

The personal right of the press to decide what it will or will not publish could only be circumscribed in the interest of social necessity by the government, the only institution with the structure and power to decide what is desirable in the dissemination of ideas.

This possibility was totally unacceptable to the founders of our country's government and its laws, and so the First Amendment to our Constitution was a guarantee that it never would happen here.

Bearing the responsibility of such a blank check freedom is not an easy task for mortals, but through the years, our nation's newspapers have shown themselves capable of the obligation.

The reason for this success is the people of the profession and their dedication to a few basic ideals. Nobody we have heard said it better than Robert M. White II, a nationally honored journalist now publisher of a community newspaper in Missouri.

The following are excerpts from his 1967 address to the National Newspaper Association:

"We belong to the profession of honesty. That is because we have only one thing to offer — honesty. With honesty our product can be successful, because it wins and holds faith. Without honesty it fails.

"Honesty, alone is our reason for being: honesty in reporting fact — call it truth, call it accurate news reporting — and honesty of opinion — call it sincerity, call it integrity in the editorial column.

"Everybody reads newspapers, but not everybody knows what newspapers are. Newspapers are the sum of the skill, the dedication, the courage of their staffs. Newspapers are the sum of the labor, the loyalty, the love of their staffs.

"Newspapers are teamwork — a selfless, inspiring giving of men and women.

"Newspapers are the lonely role of leadership, sorely tested and daily accounting for itself to the world at large in black and white.

"All of which is to say that newspapers, most of all, are people — people dedicated to honesty.

"We serve ideals: truth, honesty, the right of people to know, so they will not be lost in the darkness of not knowing, so that they may continue the habit of liberty."

This is National Newspaper Week, a celebration of our own New Year, so to speak. Our resolution will be to live by these words in upholding the reasons for the right of press freedom.

It's my opinion

It's all the same - socialism

This year's presidential election has been billed as giving the voters the choice of the century. President Nixon has been heralded as the middle of the road candidate, a man of infinite wisdom who is above such mundane things as gutter politics, while Senator McGovern, the champion of the working man, the downtrodden, and your Aunt Hattie, is supposedly the only liberal candidate.

I submit that we are knee deep in hogwash as they are both representative of the same political philosophy — socialism. It would take an extremely sharp eye to detect any difference between the two.

Southeast Asia, for instance: Senator McGovern has made the statement that he would crawl to Hanoi if necessary while President Nixon went to China with his hat in his hand and drank toasts to the cruelest butchers in history.

Nixon gave the back of his hand to Taiwan and McGovern would do the same to all of Southeast Asia. Both are starry-eyed at the thought of Russia "mellowing" and both are greatly in favor of increased aid and trade with our enemies — while that same enemy is busy killing Americans in South Vietnam.

Each is in favor of deficit spending and both are in favor of increasing welfare payments as well as the number of people on welfare, Nixon through his Family Assistance Plan and McGovern through his copy of the same plan.

Whoever one gets elected, the size of the federal government, as well as its power, will be massively increased. Both are on record as favoring a guaranteed annual income, both are in favor of wage and price controls, both are on record as favoring a world Supreme Court, both are infatuated with the United Nations, both have jumped from one side of the political fence to the other as the occasion demanded, each has been less than truthful with the American people.

McGovern would appoint Ramsey Clark as head of the FBI and Nixon has Henry Kissinger as foreign policy advisor.

Both are in favor of a one world government, both are in favor of socialized medicine. One is overt, the other is covert.

All of the above is obvious if you ignore their words and study their deeds, which by the way, is the only way to judge a politician.

Many voters dislike President Nixon and break into a cold sweat at the

Editor:

On Tues. Sept. 26th, a meeting was held in the City Hall of Oak Forest to consider "Y Not a Y" for the Oak Forest-Tinley-Orland area and surroundings.

In my opinion the meeting was a flop. The only people attending were the editor of a local newspaper, Mr. Moody of the YMCA and his assistant, a representative from the Tinley Park Jaycees, a representative from the Oak Forest Jaycees, and a young lady whose representation escapes me, and myself.

The meeting was intended as a public hearing to explain the workings of the "Y" organization, and methods of establishing a "Y". Not a committee meeting of a few individuals. Nobody would have been committed to do any work at this point.

I was quite surprised at the absence of Oak Forest residents, due to the fact the local newspaper published weekly lists of supporters of the YMCA concept for the area. If at least half of the individuals listed from Oak Forest showed up there would have been quite a crowd. The "Ad Hoc Committee" will set up another public hearing on Oct. 19th, a Thursday, in Oak Forest, and I hope not to be ashamed of the turnout.

If the people of Oak Forest are not interested in a YMCA in the area they can at least attend this meeting to hear what it is all about.

Those interested can watch the area newspaper for the place where the meeting will be held.

I am very happy to see that your paper is not afraid to print on its front page an article which brings out that there are people not in favor of the same referendum coming up to the people in School District 140.

I am referring to your article published Oct. 4. Six times in the past the same or similar referendums have been defeated by the majority of voters which elected the school board.

When will the school board wake up and help work with the majority of voters which I think want the best education for their children as I do. My three children are in the beginning grades of this District also.

If the board is so interested in our children's education and looking into the future, why won't they change their one-tracked mind and help or listen a little to the majority of voters instead of saying if it doesn't pass now the board plans to put it up for vote again.

I note with interest the recent front page article of October 4th regarding our new fire station.

Once again we are told that the builders and developers will be paying for this construction.

Yet back on page 18 of the same issue, Ordinance 640 states that an annual property tax levy will pay for the building. Our 1973 share will be $61,333.37.

Obviously the ordinance must be in error. If not, it would be appropriate if the village Public Relations Director added "Paid for by the residents of Oak Forest" to the mayor's sign at 155th and Central.

Editor:

The campaign rhetoric emanating from Washington these days sheds a great deal of light on the Nixon Economic Plan for America. Much of what is being said is not new, it is just being repeated so that it can be analyzed more easily. This comparison with the facts as we all know them, is very important. National statistics don't always translate into what is happening in our own back yard.

Will County is a relatively small community, when it is compared to the nation. We can equate what is happening in hard dollars and cents rather than having to rely exclusively on the statistics coming out of Washington like so much confetti.

The Chicago Daily News recently reported that President Nixon had vetoed a proposal to increase retirement benefits for former railroad employees because, in his opinion, to do so would endanger the fiscal soundness of the fund. Deputy sheriff's in Will County are seeking, through their union, a raise in their low salary base of something more than five percent. It is rumored in official circles that they will only be granted the 2½ percent raise authorized by the Federal Wage and Price Control Acts.

It is a certainty that nearly everyone has his or her own instance where their raises were lowered, frozen or not granted because of the wage and price controls.

Let us now take a look at the other side of the coin to what we know is beginning to happen with prices charged by business. Their demands may be justified, but no more so than the justification of wage earners for a better living.

Almost every major brand of gasoline sold in the area has increased in price from 41 cents a few short months ago to 44 and 45 cents today. That represents an increase of slightly less than seven percent. Water rates in some areas of Will County are scheduled to rise by 40 percent if applications before the Illinois Commerce Commission now are approved. This increase could cost every household nearly $45.00 per year if you used the minimum monthly water quantity you are charged for.

Milk prices are also on the rise. Just recently, milk was selling for 89 cents per gallon. It is now selling for $1.05 per gallon in most areas for an increase of nearly 16 percent. Real estate assessments have stunned nearly everyone with increases from a low of 10 percent to as high as 60 percent. The tax rate is not yet known.

In the leisure time field, prices are really skyrocketing. The domestic airlines have already received two rate increases totaling four percent and they have requested yet another to take effect before the year end bringing the total up to seven percent. The cost of a plane ticket has risen nearly $18.00, round trip to Los Angeles, with no increase in services. A cabin on the Holland America Lines Cruise Ship going to the same place for the same length of time as last year has increased over 18 per cent or better than $75.00 per person.

There are hidden increases taking place all the time all around us. The dime that bought one hour in the parking meter now only buys 45 minutes. The 95 cents special breakfast of two eggs, juice, toast and coffee is still 95 cents but the juice glass is filled a little less, jam no longer comes with the toast and the third cup of coffee costs extra.

The cost of borrowing money from banks has increased. Banks across the land recently raised their interest rates from five to 5½ percent. That's an increase of five percent. That extra one quarter of one percent of the life of a mortgage on a moderately priced home can add up into the thousands of dollars.

Gas, up seven percent; water to go up 40 percent if approved; tax assessments, up 10 to 60 percent; airplane tickets, up six percent; boat tickets, up 18 percent; loans, up five percent; milk, up 16 percent and on and on. Each of our readers can recount many more instances where their personal experiences have brought to light cost increases that far exceed the guidelines of the wage and price control commission and the statistics emanating from Washington. Where will it stop?

Special interest groups contribute to political campaigns. Lately, they have been enjoying considerable benefits from their contributions. The milk producers gave the Nixon campaign thousands and then received approval for a whopping 16 percent increase in the cost of their product. Retired employees on fixed incomes set by formulas that are badly outdated, cannot get a raise from the railroads because it would be "fiscally unsound" to do so even though the fiscally unsound operations of these railroads can be corrected with $250 million of our tax dollars.

The Illinois Bell Telephone supposedly loses a rate increase application before the Illinois Commerce Commission and then two months later their bills come out with selective rate increases amounting anywhere from 12 to 100 percent.

It is quite obvious that there is a double standard being imposed in the name of controlling the economy and inflation. It is time that the "special interests" of the voters of this country are taken into consideration.

Editor:

It seems the only way for all the people to be served in Oak Forest is to swarm each village hall meeting.

When I purchased my home in Forest View Hills there was easement land set aside for a walkway between Pine, Oak Road and Forest View Drive. People purchased homes next to the easement knowing full well for what purpose it was intended. To build a street was a builder's expense so walkways were O.K.'d. Why the builder wasn't obligated to pave the walkway has never been stated. Mayor Kelly was in office when the land was accepted by the village.

Oak Road is 3 tenths of a mile long. Young children, teenagers, and adults used the easement to catch school buses, attend Fierke and visit friends, etc. The village O.K.'d sale of the property and now fences cross some of the easements.

The teenagers who already have a identity problem are scorned because they seek an alternative route through some one's yard. Children subject themselves to possible attack from the ever increasing neighborhood security dogs.

Some one had foresight for the walkways when there was 8,000 people in the village. Now with 19,000 the village took the easy way out.

75,000 plus for Boco Rio flooding, thousands in Forest View for sewers plus money spent correcting the million dollars a year builder's short comings. I fully understand the people's concern for the 155th — 159th street project.

Who knows what happens on an off night at village meetings till the fences go up.

Story hour

TINLEY PARK — Storytime for October, sponsored by the Mrs. Jaycees, will be held at 10 a.m. Friday, Oct. 13, at the Tinley Park Public Library, 171st Street and 69th Avenue.

All pre-school children have been invited to attend to hear stories and enjoy fingerplays. Mothers may leave their children at the library and pick them up at 10:45 a.m.

Boundaries under joint city study

TINLEY PARK — Village officials have been meeting with representatives from surrounding municipalities to determine possible future village boundaries. Information, regarding negotiations pertinent to water sewer and additional facilities, was passed on to the newly formed Boundaries Committee Tuesday, by Trustee Robert Mason.

The Boundaries Committee, under the chairmanship of Jerry Hug, has determined certain tentative boundaries. Also present at the meeting were committee members, Harold Wille, Ed Gregory, Jim Kirk, John Logsdon, Village Trustees Pat Rea, and Richard Durkin and Village Engineer Vern Brazelton.

The proposed eastern boundary of the village follows a fairly straight line along forest preserve property, from 159th St., south, to approximately one half mile south of Vollmer Road.

It would be possible for the village to annex forest preserve property (Oak Forest recently annexed a portion of forest preserve property for extension of facilities) according to Mason. However, Mason told the committee, that Village Attorney Ed Richardson advised against such a move. Revenue realized through servicing forest preserve property is nil.

The tentative southern boundary, west to east, starting at Route 45, follows Interstate 80 to 80th Ave., south to 191st St., east to Harlem Ave., south to one half mile south of Vollmer Road and east to the forest preserve property. Durkin urged that the committee investigate fully the land south of I-80 and east of Route 45.

The western and northern boundaries are still pending further discussions with the villages of Mokena and Orland Park.

Mason said that he could foresee the possibility of an entirely new village bounded by Tinley Park, Mokena, Matteson and Frankfort of Prestwick. According to Mason, several subdivisions presently under construction in the area could be unacceptable to surrounding existing municipalities due to servicing of facilities.

Illegal bicycles to be ticketed

ORLAND PARK — Bicycle registration will continue this Saturday at Christian Reformed Church in Catalina subdivision from 9 to 11 a.m.

Afternoon registration will be held at the Administration Building, 147th Street and Park Lane, from 1 to 3 p.m.

After Oct. 14 the Police Department will begin issuing tickets to owners of unregistered bicycles.

The department has seven unclaimed bicycles at the police station. Several have chains and padlocks on them. Owners may recover bikes at the station by identifying their bikes.

Children had a hard time making up their minds what materials to use next as they created sticky masterpieces at the first Oak Foods Shopping Center "glue in", 159th St. and Central Ave.

Glue hooks these kids

OAK FOREST — More than 100 children from the Oak Forest community glued their way to happiness at Oak Foods', 151st Street and Central Avenue, first glue in.

The six first and second place transistor radio winners in the three age groups categories of the contest were Bobby Antelner, first place; and Karen Johnson, second, in the 5 to 7 category; Kim Noe and Donna Cunningham, in the 8-10 age category; and Renise Krauzn and Cathy Klein in the 11-13 age group.

The "glue in" is a project sponsored by the Borden Chemical Co., makers of Elmers School Glue. The children used the glue to make pictures out of crayolas, construction paper, glitter and crepe paper.

The pictures were then judged by two area art teachers; Mrs. Betty Knot, are department at Laramie Junior High School and Lillian Kahne, teachers aide at Oak Forest High School.

Two schools report exception

LINCOLN-WAY — The 1972-73 school year in the Lincoln-Way area got off to a good start under sunny skies and with increased enrollments but, with the exception of one district, with room to house all the pupils at the present time.

The one exception is Summit Hill District 161, which has two schools in operation, Arbury Hills and Ann Rutledge, and one under construction at Frankfort Square.

Ann Rutledge with a total enrollment of 216 is overcrowded, so it operates on double shifts. Rutledge houses pupils from kindergarten through sixth, of which 26 are in kindergarten.

Youngsters in the Lincoln Estates area, which Ann Rutledge has served in the past, attend classes there forenoon, from 8 a.m. to noon. There are 141 of these pupils.

In the afternoons, from 12:15 to 4:15 the school will be used by youngsters from Frankfort Square. There are now 75 of these youngsters and Supt. Aldo Fanti expects the number will reach 100 by the Christmas vacation.

Total enrollment in the Summit Hill district as of last Thursday was 830 of which 614 were in Arbury Hills School. Seventy-six of these are in kindergarten. Enrollment is up by 50 more than last year and before the year is out it is expected there will be an increase. Arbury Hills School has classes from kindergarten through eighth grade.

In fact all of the enrollment figures given here in all the districts are expected to increase, as they represent the number reporting for classes last week and the second week usually shows an increase, according to school officials.

Frankfort District 157-C also shows a gain. Total enrollment there was 805 as of last Thursday, as compared with 763 at the close of last year.

Of the 805 enrolled 541 are in Chelsea School, which includes 78 in kindergarten. According to Supt. Leroy M. Olson the breakdown of enrollees at Chelsea shows 86 in first grade; 85 in second; 85 in third; 94 in fourth, and 97 in fifth grade. There are also 16 pupils in the special education room. Enrollment at Frankfort Grade School totals 264, of which 87 are in sixth; 96 in seventh and 81 in eighth grade.

The enrollment for Mokena District 159, as of last Thursday, stood at 902, according to Supt. James R. Ennis, as compared to 861 at the close of last year. Carpenter Street School attendance was given as 173; Willowcrest Primary, 187; and Willowcrest, 525. Carpenter street School has 94 in kindergarten and 79 in the first grade.

Willowcrest Primary has 91 enrolled in the second grade and 96 in third. Mokena also has 17 pupils attending special education classes outside of the district.

The overall average class size, Supt. Ennis said, is 26. All buildings are reported filled.

The enrollment in New Lenox District 122 was 2,125 last Thursday as compared to 2,070 in 1971, according to Supt. Arnold J. Tyler. They are divided among the seven schools of the district as follows:

chairman for the last meeting and a nominating committee was chosen to set up a permanent board for the group endeavors.

Haines School, 682, grades one through five; Haven School, 227, grades one through four; Prairie Hill School (Washington Street) 157, grades one through three; Schunul School, 94, grades one and two; Reiter School, 122, kindergarten; Marley School, 109, kindergarten, bringing the total to 231; Oakview School, 704, sixth, seventh and eighth grades, plus 30 pupils in the special education rooms. The schools are filled to capacity, it was reported.

Lincoln-Way High School enrollment as of last Thursday was 2,085, according to Supt. Joe Kruzich, as compared to 1,833 at the opening of school last year and 1,785 at the end of the 1971-72 school year.

It was explained that for the past several years the number of students at the beginning of the year was less than at the end of the year. Two principal factors for this, it was explained, have been the pupils who have sufficient credits to graduate by mid-year and drop out for the last semester, and the fact that layoffs at the arsenal had caused some families to move.

"With the new subdivisions that are coming in," Supt. Kruzich said, "we believe this trend will be reversed and that the enrollments will grow rather than recede."

There are 602 freshmen enrolled: 580 sophomores: 485 juniors and 418 seniors. The 602 freshmen have their own building, but it is attached to the main school plant. It was built to accommodate 750 students so there is still room there. In the main school there is room for 1,750 and the present count there is 1,500.

needed, and in particular a cubmaster are needed.

There will be a meeting of the Rain-bow Valley Homeowners Association at the Arbury Hills School, Saturday, Oct. 14, 2 p.m.

The Summit Hill Parent-Teacher Organization will have its meeting at the Arbury Hills School, Oct. 12, 8 p.m.

A registration night was held at the Ann Rutledge school on Thursday evening, Sept. 21 at 7:30. There are eight Cub Scouts and eleven Webelos. The Webelos will meet at the Ray Albright home on Monday, 7 p.m. If there are any boys between the ages of 8 and 11 who are interested in joining Cub Scouts they can contact Ray Albright at 469-5116 or Richard Kovar at 469-5381. There will be a Halloween party and wiener roast for the Cub Scouts on Oct. 27 at the Kovar residence.

The Arbury Hills news was delayed in reaching the printing plant making it necessary to hold most of the column until next week.

Narcotics unit funds under fire

By: MICHAEL J. FLYNN
Will County - It has been learned by the HERALD that discussions regarding the re-funding of the Tri-County Narcotics Unit with $150,000 in federal funds have begun between officials of the Illinois Law Enforcement Commission (ILEC) and the Will County Sheriff's office.

The HERALD has reported, in a recent series of articles, about the unequal funding practices of the ILEC in Region IV. Kane County, one of the five counties making up Region IV, has had $6 million of $8 million budgeted for the region spent in it alone. Will County not only has had small sums spent in it, but a previous grant for the narcotics unit was approved and then funding was refused.

Although it is welcome news to learn that Will County will share again in the bounty of the ILEC, there have been no new discussions about improving the distribution of funds on a more equitable basis in the region.

The recent abduction of the Hillside policeman was a distant event for Will County residents, until the officer was reported seen near Coal City. One of the circumstances leading to his abduction is of real concern to Will County Sheriff's Policemen.

A standard practice of policemen everywhere when they stop a car on the highway is to radio the license plate number of the car they have stopped to their dispatcher. This procedure is a measure of protection for the policeman and also allows the police to check for stolen vehicles.

When the Hillside Policeman radioed in the license plate of the vehicle he had stopped, a more powerful neighboring police broadcast interrupted his broadcast and his dispatcher did not receive the full transmission. This small fact cut his life line to his headquarters and any immediate identification of his abductors.

Will County has requested ILEC aid to update its radio equipment. The ILEC has refused to accept an application on the grounds that as long as Will County uses the inefficient low band broadcast channels instead of the more popular high band channels, such as are used by Hillside, it cannot comply with its request.

Will County Sheriff's Police radio facilities presently have no interference from other services. Its modern and up to date low band facilities are more than adequate to handle the work required of it, safely.

Because of the size of the county, the radio facilities do need signal booster towers in various parts of the county to boost the signals to headquarters from squad cars. The county has a number of "communications blind spots" where a car has a great deal of difficulty making itself heard to its base station. The ILEC could fund the high cost of these towers and cure the single biggest communication problem our country has.

Improvements in the Will County Jail also are needed as are new investigations equipment, special training and portable communications equipment. The ILEC is in a position to help Will County with these needs, just as it has done in Kane County.

Area man killed: high voltage

MOKENA — Rick Marchant, 27, of 215 Hunter Ave., Joliet, was the victim of an accidental electrocution last Saturday afternoon when the control wire on a model airplane he was flying came in contact with a high voltage wire.

The accident occurred in the vicinity of 190th Street and Wolf Road. He was taken to Silver Cross Hospital after Mokena firemen applied first aid and resuscitation methods in an effort to revive him. He was pronounced dead at the hospital.

Marchant was married to Bernice Grybash, whose parents reside at 19012 Wolf Road, and they were visitors there Saturday. There is a vacant lot at the corner and Marchant, who had served four years in the U.S. Air Force and was interested in model planes, was flying one when the wire from the model craft touched a high voltage line.

Besides his wife, Mr. Marchant is survived by two sons, Richard and Mario; his parents, Henry and Anita Marchant, two brothers, Robert and Bruce; his maternal grandfather, Joseph Pristo, and several uncles and aunts.

Marchant was employed as a mechanic by the Lucenta Tire Co., Joliet.

Purchase gets a 'no'

MOKENA — The proposal of the village board to purchase the Walter Yunker Building at 1120 Front St., was voted down by village residents at a special referendum last Saturday, 377 to 84. A total of 465 votes were cast but there were four spoiled ballots.

The village had reached an agreement with Yunker under which it could purchase the property for $75,000 over a 20-year period. The village had intended to use the building as storage for its trucks and other machinery including police squads, and use the office space at the front for police headquarters. And for a time the village planned to rent some of the storage space to the township.

Under the law covering such proposal interested citizens could petition for a referendum. This was done and the election date set for Oct. 7.

There was little talk on the subject between the time the petition was filed and the referendum date set but apparently the public was opposed to any move which might cause a tax increase, according to observers.

MR. AND MRS. ALAN DAVID MURRAY

Bride designs gown

CHICAGO HEIGHTS — Sandra Lee Guarini, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Carstens, Rt. 30, Frankfort, became the bride of Alan David Murray, Sunday, Aug. 20 at 5 p.m. at the Presbyterian Church of Our Savior, Chicago Heights. Alan is the son of Peter Murray, 60 Peyton Drive, Chicago Heights, and the late Mrs. Ann Murray.

Officiating at the late-afternoon ceremony were the Rev. A. Vincent Carr of Presbyterian Church of Our Savior, and Father James Frederick of St. Anthony's Catholic Church, Frankfort.

Music was provided by Paul Sandahl and Ronald Kranz, friends of the newlyweds. Selections sung to the accompaniment of a guitar included "Here, There and Everywhere," "Catch the Wind," "Wedding Song" and "Colours."

For her wedding, the bride appeared in a full-length, empire-waisted gown she designed and created herself of imported swiss organza, with embroidered roses and finished with tiered lace on the long, fitted sleeves and layered skirt. Her waist-length illusion veil was caught with a circlet of roses at the headpiece. She carried a cascade of phalaenopsis orchids, stephanotis, yellow roses and baby's breath.

Maid of honor was Cynthia Reiter, of New Lenox, and Jane Holman was the bridesmaid. Linda Murray, sister of the groom, attended the guestbook.

Ernest Ybarra of Sauk Village served as Alan's best man, with Richard Lenski, Glenwood as groomsmen. Richard Harms of Frankfort was the usher.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Carstens chose a floorlength dress and coat ensemble of orchid crepe and matching chantilly lace, which she designed for the occasion.

The reception was held immediately following the ceremony at the Tinley Park American Legion Hall in Tinley Park. After an extended honeymoon in Florida, with visits to Disneyworld, Key West and Miami Beach, as well as a trip to the Bahamas, the couple took up residence in Chicago Heights.

The groom, a 1969 graduate of Bloom Township High School in Chicago Heights, is presently attending Prairie State College.

The new Mrs. Murray is a 1969 graduate of Lincoln-Way High School, New Lenox, and is now a student at the School of the Art Institute of Chicago.

MR. AND MRS. CLARENCE LAUFFER

Family surprises happy pair

MOKENA — Mrs. and Mrs. Clarence Lauffer, 11023 Bryant Road, recently celebrated their 35th wedding anniversary.

Clarence and Alma (Schilling) were married Sept. 5, 1937 at Trinity Lutheran Church, Tinley Park. They are the parents of five children: Mrs. William (Bev) Haas, Jr.; Wayne; Mrs. Walter (Arlene) Switalski; Mrs. Daryl (Carol) Regenold; Mrs. James (Joyce) Burroughs.

The occasion was celebrated with a surprise party given by the family at the Blue Willow Restaurant. Also present was Mrs. Marie Schilling and eight grandchildren.

Mr. and Mrs. Lauffer are both employed at Lincoln-Way Community High School.

Wedding ring? That's optional

Marriage was truly a cause for celebration 100 years ago when leisure time and festivities were rare occasions. It was not uncommon for the formal — and often very short — courtship to end with an enormous wedding lasting up to two days and attracting friends, relatives and mere acquaintances from miles around.

Ceremonies were held in the tiny churches that had sprung up in the small communities or the circuit preacher would come to the home to tie the bonds in this rural area. Vows completed, the bride and groom were partners for life.

The parents of the betrothed spent days in preparation for the party following the ceremony. A parade of decorated, horse-drawn carriages or sleighs (bedecked with cans and other noisy objects) tore through the woods in a wild ride of celebration. Guests pinned envelopes of money to the bridal couple's horse blanket to offset expenses and start them off with a nestegg.

Receptions went on day and night spurred on by dancing, drinking and feasting. It was tradition for someone to steal the bride's slipper and for the groom to goodnaturedly pay the thief $2 for its return.

Boys and girls in their teens often wound up as man and wife, mother and father before their 20th birthdays. Both were thought to be capable of handling their adult roles, having been trained to do so by their parents since early childhood. They, in turn, would teach their children as they had been taught.

Life was busy for man and woman; children were plentiful; hardships were expected and lived with; happiness was cherished.

Jump 100 years to marriage 1972-style and it would seem to be taking place in an entirely different civilization so far removed from what great-grandmother experienced.

A church or home is being replaced by forest, beach, airplane, mountain, meadow, swimming pool and any number of unlikely places for a wedding ceremony to be performed. Vows are rewritten or substituted with the poetic creation of the bride and groom.

Couples write contracts and expectations down in black and white, defining the roles they will assume during their marriage before the ceremony. A few couples with children opt for a complete role reversal with mother responsible for bringing home a paycheck and father responsible for bringing up the children.

The idea of partnership in marriage has changed too, over 100 years. Great-grandmother helped with the butchering of animals, or in the family store, or in the fields. Her descendent also works side by side with her man but at the same time may demand an equal voice in decisions, an equal share of the paycheck, and expect her partner to handle an equal load of the housework.

The unmarried woman of 100 years ago was a thing to be pitied. A woman was an old maid by the time she reached her mid-twenties. Today, again, attitudes have changed. Words like spinster have been replaced by "career woman" or "bachelorette" and it is no longer a stigma to remain unmarried.

Perhaps the biggest change to hit marriage in 100 years is the prevalence of divorce. Happy or unhappy, the marriage that was consummated a century ago rarely ended until one or the other partner died. In the unlikely event that divorce did occur the man and woman — and especially the woman — was branded for life and could seldom find a "respectable" partner.

Today divorce statistics have been quoted to be as high as 50 per cent. Divorce laws are under study on the national and state level; several states have already revised their laws making divorce as legally simple and painless as possible.

A number of organizations have sprung up for single people only. Parents Without Partners, only one of many, offers the single parent a chance to share experiences and problems with others in the same circumstances.

If the predictions of anthropologists, sociologists and psychologists, termed experts in the field of marriage, come true, great-grandmother would be even more shocked to see what happens to the changing institution in the next hundred years. If the experts are correct, marriage will be an optional living arrangement — mainly for those who wish to have children. It will be harder to get into and easier to get out of. It will certainly have changed from what we know it as today and may not even resemble what it was a century ago.

Walkathon aids community

SOUTHWEST — A Walkathon is being planned for the March of Dimes for Sunday, Oct. 29. The Walkathon will be a 17 mile hike by teens and pre-teens through the communities of Midlothian, Country Club Hills, Tinley Park and Oak Forest.

The students who participate in the Walkathon will raise funds to fight birth defects by having parents, relatives, friends and business people of the community sponsor the students in the walk by pledging a certain amount of money for each mile the students walk.

Mr. and Mrs. Wesley D. Brown, (Pizza Pete) Oak Forest, are being aided by Violet Garaffo, Community Appeals director, in organizing the Walkathon. Students who are interested in participating in the walk can obtain the necessary information from their school's student council or at Pizza Pete's, 5333 W. 159th St., Oak Forest.

Lions party

Members of the Midlothian-Oak Forest Lions Club have tickets for their Oct. 31 theater night at Drury Lane. Cesar Romero will star in the popular "Mr. Barry's Etchings" when the curtain rises at 8:30 p.m. Price of each ticket is $3.50 with proceeds going to the Palos-Orland Unit of Recording For the Blind.

The Palos-Orland Unit is one of 24 Units and branches of RFB located throughout the United States. Volunteer teams of readers and monitors meet at the Unit's recording studio to produce free tapes of textbooks for students whose handicaps make reading difficult or impossible. The Unit plans to purchase a tape copier with the funds donated by the Lions Club. With the copier the Unit can duplicate two hours of recorded material in less than seven minutes and send them to students who request the texts.

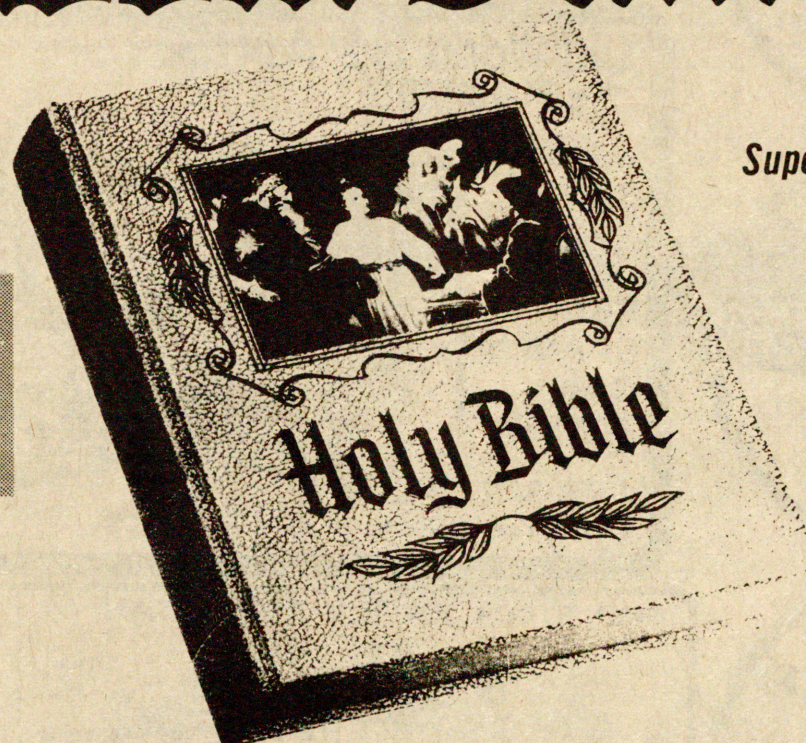

Those desiring tickets can call James McInish at 687-2608; Lois Klein, FI-2832; Helen Allen, 349-3055 or the Unit at 349-9356.

Purchasing furniture calls for discrimination

by MONICA WILCH

Consumers are often their own worst enemies.

For, regardless of the scruples — or lack thereof — of the dealer, the consumer who wanders into the marketplace totally uninformed is asking for trouble.

A case in point is the purchase of furniture. Nearly everyone at some point in life finds it necessary to go out and buy furniture, from a simple chair or table to an entire houseful. But very few consumers really know what they are buying, and consequently end up dissatisfied because the furniture isn't what they wanted, what they needed or what they could use.

Before you contribute to the $50 billion spent annually on home furnishings, become aware not only of the different styles of furnishings, but also of the different materials used and the types and quality of construction.

It is somewhat of a misconception — though commonly held — that good furniture must be solid wood rather than veneer. Most modern and traditional furniture is made with veneer tops, side panels, etc., with other parts such as legs being solid wood. The veneer, which is made by gluing layers of wood together at cross-grain, is actually more durable than solid wood. It is less susceptible to warping, moisture, humidity, changing temperature, drying out and cracking than solid wood.

The only kinds of furniture likely to be made of solid wood are Early American and colonial.

FINE HARDWOOD VENEERS GAIN ADDED STRENGTH FROM A CORE OF SOLID WOOD OR A PARTICLE BOARD CORE. The solid core is made of planks of wood glued together like a butcher's block, and particle board cores are molded from chips of wood packed together with special glue and wood flour. This core is exceptionally smooth and resists warping.

On the other hand, budget priced furniture will sometimes be made with a honeycomb core — a paper material in the form of a honeycomb, which, of course, is very light and not very durable.

Another shortcut used in low cost furniture is that of laminating a non-figured veneer to the core and printing a grain figure on it. This imitation may or may not look as good as fine wood, but is somewhat thinner than a real face veneer.

While fine furniture traditionally has been made of hardwood, modern technology and sophisticated plastics are now being employed, especially in reproducing such ornate styles of furniture as Spanish or Mediterranean. In fact, these styles are almost certain to be made of plastic parts, unless they are extremely expensive. Woodcarving is too costly and time consuming — and a vanishing art, as well — to be used in moderately priced mass produced furniture. Moreover, it is susceptible to swelling and shrinking, which could prove disastrous wherever pieces of wood are glued together to form a molded ornamentation.

At the lower end of the price bracket, ornate furniture is likely to be made of high impact polystyrene, an inexpensive plastic which may be practical from both the manufacturer's and user's standpoint, but which leaves something to be desired in appearance.

Regardless of component materials, any furniture you buy must have a finish. Depending on style and price of the furniture, the finish may be a stain, glaze, distressing or antiquing, and a top coat for extra protection and brilliance.

Standard among top coatings for years has been nitrocellulose lacquer. While it looks good and is easy to apply and maintain, it does not resist many modern household substances likely to be spilled. Most furniture now, however, comes with a "super finish." The best among these compounds is one that will protect the wood against nail polish and remover. Ask your salesman about the super finish when considering a piece of furniture.

Of equal importance to materials in evaluating furniture is the quality of construction. Notice overall workmanship first; sloppiness, such as visible glue, uneven seams or corners indicates low quality furniture. Check also the outer edges of veneers to be sure they are smooth. There should be no visible seams and panels on front, back, top and sides should be of matching grain and quality.

Drawers are often a good indication of workmanship — often first to suffer when corners are cut. A well made drawer will open and close smoothly and fit snugly into grooves or slides. Any ornamentation should line up with the rest of the chest or cabinet. Good furniture will have dust-proof drawer construction, consisting of dust panels between drawers, and inconspicuous dovetail joints at front and rear. For additional strength, they may have glue blocks in the corners.

When buying upholstered furniture, it is best to rely on a reputable manufacturer and dealer. However, there are some things you can look for or ask about.

Frames traditionally were manufactured of kiln-dried hardwood glued and screwed at joints. But in modern furniture, frames are increasingly constructed of molded plastic. Springs in traditional deep seated furniture as usually coil, while modern, low line sofas and chairs use sinuous arc or "zigzag" springs. The latter is generally acceptable, but perhaps not as comfortable as deep coil.

Both kinds of springs must be covered with comfort cushioning, which may be cotton batting, flexible urethane foam, rubber latex foam or polyester fiber. Cotton is usually an economy component, and, as a natural fiber, is susceptible to pests and mildew and may be allergenic. Quality manufacturers tend toward the use of urethane foam wrapped in polyester fiberfill. When considering cushioning, be sure to find out if the material is flame resistant.

For successful home decorating, a knowledge of furniture must also be combined with practical considerations.

Measure the space in which you wish to place a piece of furniture, especially if it is confined by other permanent or semi-permanent objects; for example, the corner beside the fireplace, the space between the refrigerator and the kitchen cabinets. Also note the presence of hot and cold air registers, electrical outlets, windows, that might affect placement of furniture and limit space.

Of course, it follows that you will then measure the pieces of furniture you look at in stores to determine if they will fit. But don't forget to measure doorways, halls, stairways, etc. through which the furniture must be carried. A sofa that won't fit through the front door will not be of much use on the front lawn. Test for comfort. It is only logical, when buying a chair, to sit in it, or in the case of a bed, to lie down on it. But surprisingly, many people are hesitant to do so. Reclining chairs can be especially uncomfortable if they do not fit a person, and improper mattresses can cause severe back problems. Merely sitting on the edge of a mattress tells you absolutely nothing about it.

Finally, after you have made your decision and ordered a piece of furniture, go over the order with the salesman point by point to make sure he has it right. When color or wood choices are a part of the order be extra certain those are clear.

Most importantly, if the furniture is damaged when it arrives, do not accept it. Contact the salesman or store manager immediately and insist upon a replacement.

Arcana Corner

ARCANA CORNER
Hypnosis, good and bad.
by Mary Straub

There's a husky truck-driver crying like a baby. And the erudite college professor who is finding it difficult to count to 10 without skipping 8. A plain looking girl, normally round-shouldered and shy, is strutting around like a show-girl to unheard stripper music. What's happening? They've been hypnotized and are behaving in ways that can safely be judged unusual for any given individual.

In spite of such performances the cynic will persist, "I don't believe in hypnosis," as if it is a religion or a sight merely talked about yet unseen. What they don't realize is that when they are lost in a novel, oblivious to someone coming into the room, or are so engrossed in their thoughts that they pass their train stop, they are in what is called a hypnoidal state — a light state of hypnosis.

That isn't too frightening, but what about the objection, "I don't want to give my mind to anyone else; my will is my own." Now we're getting down to the nitty-gritty of it. But, first, let's describe what hypnosis is.

Hypnosis can be explained as a one-pointed concentration which obliterates all else. The normal, waking consciousness is put to rest so that the subconscious — which is the body's real authority and manager — can receive directly the suggestions considered to be valuable for growth and change. In this way pain can be alleviated, studies come easier and various habits modified or eliminated altogether.

This is not dangerous except when accomplished by unknowledgeable persons having little understanding of the workings of the mind. Certain hypnotists can fall into this category, but so do parents and teachers. Consider how these last two groups influence children. Youngsters have sponge-like minds which literally soak up suggestions; for example, a fifth grader, on the first class of the new year, reported the teacher as saying to his students, "I'm pretty tough. I'd say that no one in this room can expect to get more than a 'C' grade." This is negative suggestion which could hinder the progress of some of the students, even though a small minority might accept it as a challenge and do better.

Also negative is the woman who angrily belts her son with "you're just like your father!" Especially, the influence on the son will be negative, if she and hubby have vociferous disagreements.

Hypnosis can be self imposed

As a practicing hypnotist, I attend as many shows as possible and always find something new or original occurring. Several months ago Ross H., a clinical hypnotist appeared at an Oak Lawn woman's club meeting. Ross had several women deep into hypnosis, not a difficult feat for such a good-looking man. Among other benign things, he told the ladies he had removed their belly-buttons and was holding them in his hand.

He snapped his fingers and they opened their eyes. Immediately the reactions came — one searched her stomach through her clothes; another merely "Oh'd." Another compared with her hypnotized neighbor, and still another sat shaking her head. One woman began to sob violently, her face turning beet red. She rocked back and forth, the tears streaming down her cheeks. Ross was momentarily bewildered, but moved quickly to cure her apparent grief. At the same time, someone called out that "she is a belly-dancer."

Ross quieted her easily and instantly, his years of experience and know-how enabled him to halt a touchy situation, something that in the hands of an amateur, or with a more serious implication, could have exceedingly disturbing effects.

Hypnosis then, can be negative or positive, can harm or aid. But, it is generally said that all hypnosis is self-hypnosis. When one puts oneself into the care of a hypnotist, one is willfully agreeing to allow him to set the pace for the reaching of one's goal, whatever it is.

If this condition is not met and there is the slightest resistance on the part of the subject, the hypnosis is not easily effective. For example, a woman who desires to lose weight, but during hypnosis finds that she is actually eating more than ever has an unresolved conflict concerning eating and heaviness. The depth of her conflict requires more skill on the part of the hypnotist — just waving a bright light and saying, "You're satisfied with less food" is not going to work. It is very unlike the harmless, fun type suggestion that momentarily turns a mild housewife into a woman's lib advocate.

Fairway's sewer woes continue

ORLAND PARK — The Fairway Home Owners Association continued their discussion on the disconnecting of their storm sewers from the village sanitary sewers at their last meeting. The Metropolitan Sanitary District of Greater Chicago and the Village of Orland Park are insisting, through village ordinance 487, that disconnections take place as soon as possible. Inspections of homes, pertaining to drainage of storm water into sanitary sewers, is being carried out by the village. However, homeowners claim that there are discrepancies in suggested methods and costs to alleviate similar homeowner problems. Some homeowners stated that the village had informed them that, if necessary, they would have to drain the storm water into their back yards. The committee for the homeowners' group has written a letter to the village asking for clarification of solutions. Prior to the discussion on storm water problems, the homeowners' group had as guest speakers, four young adults from the Crossroad Drug Abuse program. The speakers, who are all ex-users, discussed their program at the Tinley Park Mental Health Center. The main goal of the program is to assist other ex-users in their adjustment back in society. The young people stated that no parental signature is necessary for admittance to the program, however, parents are asked to attend group therapy sessions once a week.

"I know it's great in water, but how far can you travel in Midlothian Creek?"

SOUTHWEST — The summer of '72 will probably be remembered as the year the "epidemic" hit the suburbs. Homemade signs of assorted shapes can be seen on residential property at every economic bracket present in the suburbs. The signs all "say" the same thing, "Garage Sale."

People come to garage sales to browse, shop and visit. Some come out of pure curiosity and some come with serious intent of getting a head start on birthday or Christmas gifts. When things really get in full swing, some hostesses serve coffee to potential customers.

Basements and attics receive a thorough once-over from women planning on giving a garage sale and an article they find no use for often turns out to be "just what I've been looking for."

The rash of "garagitis" has covered the suburbs. Authorities have stated that an over-all cure will only be evidenced by the first snow fall.

"If they only had tops I could use them for"

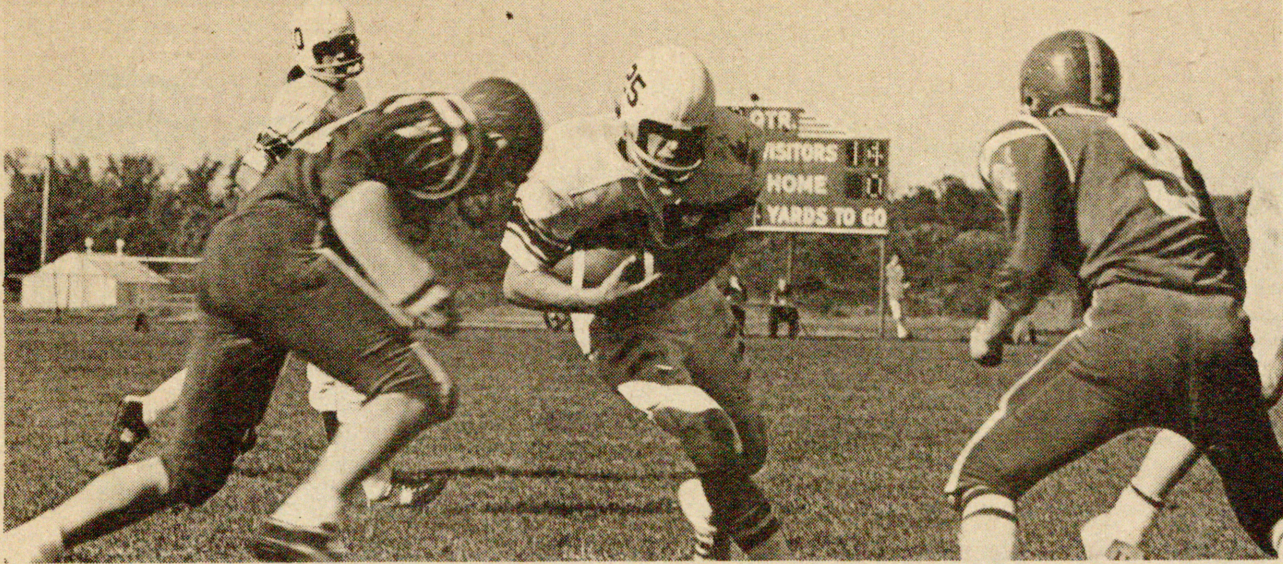

"Does the pin come with it?"

"But Mommy's birthday isn't until December."

Oak Forest routs Bolingbrook

OAK FOREST — Bolingbrook couldn't get on the scoreboard at Oak Forest Sunday, as the Raiders put everything together for three shut out victories.

In the heavyweight contest the first time Oak Forest got the ball, Mault ran it in for the TD. Wheeler converted with Mitchell holding. Lanquish scored the second TD on a three yard run. Mowat scored on a pass from Grahm.

Snedden intercepted a pass and brought it back 70 yards for a TD. Later Wheeler caught a pass from Grahm for a TD. On the following kickoff, Lanquish recovered a fumble to set up a 49 yard TD pass play which went from Grahm to Mowat. Wheeler converted with Mitchell holding.

Early in the third quarter, Miller blew through to block a punt which set up another Raider TD. Grahm lateraled to Mault, who blasted his way through for another TD.

Rocco picked off a Bolingbrook pass and scampered 20 yards for a TD. A few plays later Rocco stole another pass going 15 yards for a TD. Slouber recovered a loose ball to stop a Bolingbrook drive. Snedden picked off a pass and brought it back 40 yards for a TD. Final score, Oak Forest 64 Bolingbrook 0. Heavyweight conference record now 3-1-1.

Lightweight A Game 20-0

On the second play from scrimmage Runyan picked off a pass to set up an Oak Forest TD that went on a pass from Glennon to Brennan. Runyan got the

In the second quarter Little intercepted to put the Raiders in good field position. This time Glennon found Bewley open and hit him with a TD pass. On the conversion Runyan fumbled but Carlson alertly picked it up and blew in for the extra point. In the third quarter Murphy recovered a fumble. Lynn found Howley open and hit him with a TD pass. On the first play from scrimmage Misheck ran 40 yards for a TD. Lenzen converted on a run. The next time the Raiders got the ball, Misheck broke loose again, this time going 45 yards for a TD. Lenzen ran for the point after. Evans scored on a 39 yard run. With one minute left in the first half, Evans recovered a fumble. In the third quarter, Balsoni recovered a fumble but Oak Forest fumbled on the very next play.

Balsoni recovered another fumble and Kevin Emmet plowed through from the 2 yd. line for a TD. Evans scored the point after on a run. Later Kopale intercepted but the Raiders had to turn the ball back on a roughing the passer penalty. Coaches Bob Emmet and George Thorp commended the boys on an excellent performance. The pee wee A's are now 1-3-1.

The B's lost 26-18 to Tinley. Fortin scored on a 1 yd plunge. Javior spotted Panko open and hit him with a pass that was good for 40 yards and a TD. Cooper and Steglich picked off passes in the second quarter. Knipper scored on a long pass from Javior in the fourth quarter. Malloy intercepted a pass in the fourth quarter.

The PeeWee B game was disastrous as Tinley romped over Oak Forest 33-0. Hagenbart recovered a fumble for the Raiders.

Knights bow to Braves

NEW LENOX — Despite the cheers of visiting alumni, the Knights of Lincoln-Way High School failed to capture a win Saturday to mark the school's 1972 homecoming.

In the fourth loss of the season, the Knights bowed to the Bremen High School Braves in a 38-12 Southwest Suburban Conference defeat.

It was the third consecutive conference loss for the Knights.

Bremen's senior Kevin Hunt led the scoring for the Braves. He brought in 18 of the 38 Bremen points.

Hunt began his action in the second quarter as the Braves held an 8-0 lead over Lincoln-Way. A 10 yard run brought in his first touchdown.

The Knights responded with a three yard run by quarterback Brian Fischer. But Hunt was ready to again even the action. He managed a 72 yard run with 3:42 left in the half, and then ran an 82 yard punt return with less than two minutes remaining before the buzzer.

On both touchdowns, Jim O'Leary ran successful conversions to set the half-time score at 30-6 in favor of the Braves.

Cyclists winners

OAK FOREST — Susan Beilfast and Virginia Kalenowski were winners in the recent bicycle contest of the Oak Forest Park District with the "prettiest" entries.

Other winners included:
Oldest — Donna Hennelly
Most original — Mike Casper, Diane Sigrist and Sandra Brown.
Family — the Masseys.

Early in the fourth quarter, O'Leary took the ball on a 11 yard jaunt for another Bremen touchdown. Again he ran the successful conversion.

Junior Tim Virden scored the final touchdown of the game on a 5 yard run. The td gave Lincolnway its 12 point total.

In ground action, the two teams tied in first downs with 11 each. The Braves gained a total of 240 yard in rushing compared to 135 for Lincoln-Way. Bremen gained only 10 yards in passing, and Lincoln-Way gained five yards.

Lincoln-Way continues its season activity this Saturday facing Oak Lawn.

Titans whip Stagg

TINLEY PARK — The Titans of Tinley Park High School scored a big win Saturday and re-established their position as a major power this season in the Southeast Suburban Conference.

The Tinley squad smacked the Stagg High School team, 28-6 in Friday night activity.

The win was the Titan's third in this season's conference play. As such, they are threatened for conference leadership only by the Hillcrest High School Hawks who hold a two win and one tie record in this season's SES play.

George Miles and Dan Bulow shared scoring honors for Tinley Park in Friday's game.

Miles scored on a four yard run in the first quarter and followed with a second td on a one yard run in the second period. Charles Sinnulis received a pass from quarterback Ed Neal and brought in the extra points on the second Miles scoring.

In the fourth period, it was Bulow's turn to take the ball.

Taking the ball on a handoff from Neal, Bulow rushed down the field on a 68 yard run which resulted in six more points being added to the Tinley tally. Moments later, he moved forward on an eight yard run and raised the score to 26-6 for Tinley. The successful conversion resulted in the final 28-6 score.

The Titans will face the Rich Central Olympians in this Saturday's action.

Celtics make poor show at homecoming

NEW LENOX — Providence High School alumni watched the Celtics in a disappointing homecoming performance Saturday as the school's long-time rival, the Lancers of Little Flower, scored a 24-0 win.

It was the fourth loss of the season for the Celtics, who put in an excellent but losing performance in their opening game against Montini High School and have been slipping ever since.

Saturday's game was the first Chicagoland Private League loss for Providence.

The Lancers obtained eight points per quarter in the first three periods of play, resulting in their 24-0 victory. For Providence, the only credible scoring attempt came in the second quarter when seniors John Buchanan and Dick Mandella and sophomore John Carruthers each managed six yard gains. A Carruthers fumble gave the ball to Little Flower however, and Providence failed to regain such momentum for the remainder of the game.

Little Flower's first scoring came on a 56 yard run by Tim Miller in the first quarter. Rich Yurko brought in the second touch down on a 6 yard run in the second quarter.

A punt attempt by the Celtics' Joe Dailey in the third quarter was successfully blocked by the Lancer squad. The ball was retrieved by Little Flower's Ron Butz who proceeded unhindered for 47 yards and the touch-down. Little Flower was likewise successful in each attempt at points after touch-down.

The Lancers topped Providence in yardage 254 yards to 131. of that tally, 243 of the Lancer yards were gained in rushing and only 11 in passing. The Celtics, meanwhile, excelled in air power, gaining 61 yards in passing by comparison.

Providence will continue Private League activity this weekend meeting Walther Lutheran.

Despite numerous and frantic attempts, the Providence Celtics were unable to contain the Little Flower Lancers Saturday in the Private School League competition at New Lenox.

Bulldogs maintain their unbeaten record

TINLEY PARK — The Tinley Park Bulldogs lightweight squad extended their unbeaten streak to eight on Sun., Oct. 8, as they beat the Midlothian Wildcats 46-0. The outcome of the game was no indication of what was supposed to happen according to the rest of the coaches in the league.

The game was supposed to be a hard-fought, well-planned ballgame, going right down to the wire, but the Bulldogs had other plans. Right from the beginning kick-off the big blue squad took command. It did not take any more than six plays and the Bulldogs had put their first of seven touchdowns on the board. It was an eight-yard run for Tony Proszek, who would score once more and be the game's leading rusher before the day was over.

The Midlothian offense took the ball after the Tinley kickoff and it was not three plays later the Tinley offense was coming back onto the field. The Bulldog defense had made the Wildcat offense cough-up the ball. This set the scene for Proszek's second touchdown. A lot of credit has to be given to the Bulldog offensive line as they opened the hole for Proszek to race 33 yards and another Bulldog touchdown.

The tempo of the game did not slow down at all as the Bulldogs put another one on the board before the end of the first quarter. Scott Stuckly plunged over from the two as his touchdown made the score 20-0.

It seems like all the glory is going to the offense, but the defense deserves just as much. It was their aggressiveness and stamina which made this team click.

The defense recovered five Midlothian fumbles and gave the Tinley offense good field position. The defense even scored themselves as Tim Muchra dove on a loose ball in the Midlothian endzone for a touchdown.

The Bulldogs scored on the last play of the half as Scott Stuckly went in on a 25-yard run. It was Scott's second and third efforts which proved to be the deciding point on this play. Stuckly broke free from tackler after tackler and ended up falling in the endzone for the touchdown. The half ended with Tinley leading 32-0.

The second half did not prove to be any different than the first. Tinley came out again ready to play ball. The Tinley offense showed more of their passing game in the second-half. They completed 5 of 6 passes for a total of 78 yards, one going for a touchdown. Bob Jaklich was on the receiving end of a 20 yard pass from Tom Farrell, who threw the ball perfectly.

The Bulldogs last score came on a somewhat odd play, but no matter, because it proved to be still benefiting to the Tinley squad. Tony Proszek ran four yards to about the Midlothian one-yard line then fumbled the ball into the end.

Dave Samiotto proved to be in the right place at the right time as he pounced on the loose ball and had six points for the Tinley team. Smaniotto, who hardly ever gets his hands on the ball, because the plays left guard, was just as surprised as anyone else when he got the score. The Tinley squad improved their record to 5-0 in conference play as they left the bewildered Wildcats with a 3-2 record.

The Tinley team ended with 227 yards total, 149 on the ground. The Bulldogs will be hosting the Raiders from Oak Forest, Sun., Oct. 15, as this game will mark their homecoming.

NI-Gas premieres a new pollution-free energy service at White Hen Pantry food store.

Experimental fuel cell at a White Hen Pantry food store supplies the most pollution-free electrical energy from an on-site power plant operated by natural gas.

Though still in an experimental stage, this new fuel cell power plant is the most pollution-free energy source known to man. The most modern coal or oil central power stations release large amounts of sulfur dioxide, nitrogen oxides, hydrocarbons, and solid particles into the atmosphere. But not the fuel cell power plant. Because it uses an electrochemical process and runs on natural gas, its harmless by-products are carbon dioxide and water, practically eliminating all sources of air pollution.

The fuel cell power plant will be one of 37 installations, all financed by private funds, that will be put into operation through the U.S. during 1972.

Chiefs, 49'ers hold on to leads

OAK FOREST — Athletic Association play in the senior boys division of the league defense was a major factor as the Medema Builders Packers topped Chet and Lucy's Bears 30 to 6 and the Oak Forest Trustees Vikings gave the Spicer Realtors Chiefs their first loss 14 to 8.

In the junior division the Royal Chrysler-Plymouth Rams won a 18 to 14 decision over the Maurer Construction Colts. The Fieldcrest 49er's rolled to an overwhelming 80 to 6 final over the Fieldcrest Raiders.

In the first game at Fieldcrest the 49er's were like steamrollers as they went down the field. Dale Reams scored four TD's and two conversions. Peter King also made four TD's and one conversion followed by Jeff Webbers three TD's, Mike Windhorst's three conversions and one conversion by Dave Biscan.

The Raiders only tally was scored by Ed Benninger extending the 49er's winning streak to the present 4 - 0.

In the second game at Fieldcrest Viking Don Nelson carried the ball for two TD's and one conversion. The Spicer Realtors Chiefs Len Kubacki made the only TD for the Chiefs and Jeff Traves made the two-point conversion as the defense of both teams were superb. They battled fiercely to keep each other out of the end zone in a very exciting game.

At Gingerwood Park Maurer Colt Kurt Mayer was the first to score a TD with a four-yard run followed with a two-point conversion by Colt Rod Humpal at seven minutes of the first quarter. Royal Chrysler-Plymouth Ram Grover Goetz put the Rams on the board with a two-yard plunge over the middle with two minutes left in the first quarter.

Both teams tried again and again to score during the second and third quarter but both defenses were up to the task. At one minute of the fourth quarter Colt Rod Humpal on a double reverse ran 40 yards to pay dirt after a Ram fumble on the kick off was recovered by Colt Mark Kumicich. But on the following kickoff by the Colts, Royal Ram Grover Goetz ran a beautiful broken field runback of 45 yards for a TD.

Then, with just four minutes left in the game Royal Chrysler-Plymouth Ram Grover Goetz became the hero of the game when he took a fake and ran 30 yards on an end sweep for the final score of the game as the Rams won 18 to 14 over the Colts.

In the second game it was the Medema Packers all the way over Chet and Lucy's Bears. In the first quarter Packer Casey Griffin took a kick off all the way in for a TD, followed five minutes later with a 15-yard run up the middle by Packer Mike Janicek and a two-point conversion by Janicek also. At three minutes of the second quarter Packer Marty Griffin caught the Bears behind the goal line for a safety.

On the last play of the first half Bear Joe Montgomery took a screen pass and scampered 30 yards for a Bear TD. At five minutes of the third quarter Packer Dan Muilli took a pitch out and ran down the side line on a 30-yard scoring play. Packer Kevin Joyce made the conversion. The final scoring play of the game came on the opening play of the fourth quarter when Medema Packer Mike Janicek ran 25 yards for a TD. Final was Packers 30, Bears 6.

The games are played each Sunday starting at noon at both Fieldcrest and Gingerwood Parks. Admission is free so bring the family for an afternoon of excitement and fun. Neither park has bleachers so bring along a folding chair to sit on.

Eagles claw Mustangs

EVERGREEN PARK — Saturday the Carl Sandburg Eagles defeated a tough Evergreen Park team 13-0 in a great defensive effort by the Eagles.

The Evergreen Mustangs, who played Homewood-Flossmoor prior to their meeting with the Eagles, scored 14 points on the powerhouse Vikings in a losing effort 16-14. The underrated Eagle defense knowing this, rose to the occasion by shutting out the Mustangs in a all-out 11 man effort.

The only Eagle offensive thrust of the game was a 40-yard run by senior quarterback Wally Atkinson. "The Eagles' defense was just excellent," said Sandburg Coach Cliff Eade.

Coach Eade was pleased with the game, but added "The offense needs work in preparation for next Friday's game against Rich East." The other score for the Eagles came when junior Steve Nelson blocked a punt and ran it in from 20 yards out.

The Eagles gained 134 total yards while the Mustangs gained 129 total yards. Wally Atkinson concetned on one of two passes for seven yards and looked impressive in pressure situations. Senior fullback Rusty Vincent was the Eagles leading rusher with eight carries for 33 yards.

The Eagle's record stands at 3-1 overall and a 2-1 conference record. The Eagle's next game will be Friday night at home against the Rich East Rockets.

Eagle runners take first win

ORLAND PARK — Carl Sandburg's cross country team rebounded for two straight victories last week. The Eagle harriers first win was over a tough Bremen High School team, 32-44.

Tom Page finished first for the Eagles with a good time of 16:51 with Eagles Tom Paschall and Brian Dotseth right behind.

Later in the week, the Eagle harriers squeaked out a 28-29 win over Rich E. 1st with Page leading the way finishing third in the overall race but first among Eagle runners.

Coach John Wilson said, "Tim Close, a fine sophomore runner, will be out for the season because of hepatitis, a tough break for Close and the team." He added, "The team needed these wins for morale purposes. We are showing much improvement."

The Eagle's record now stands at 5-5 overall and 2-2 in conference. The Eagle harriers next opponents will be at Reavis Thursday at Turtlehead Lake in Palos Heights, the meet starting at 4 p.m.

Sandburg girls top three events

ORLAND PARK — This year's girls tennis team of Carl Sandburg is off to a strong start. In their first meet against Argo, the girl Eaglettes won both their first and second singles along with their second doubles match.

There are so many girls out for the team this year that Coach Marsha Murphy is planning to have two teams next year, both a varsity and a junior-varsity.

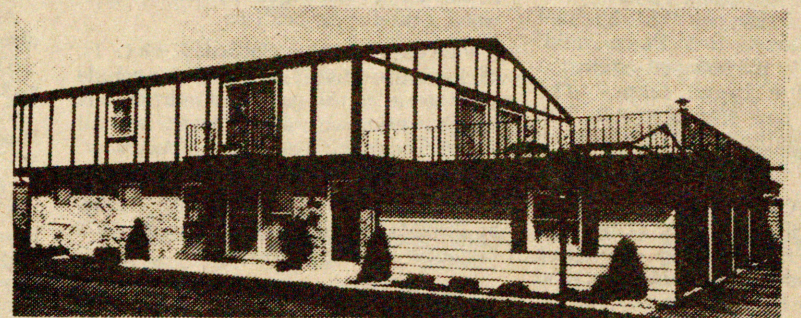

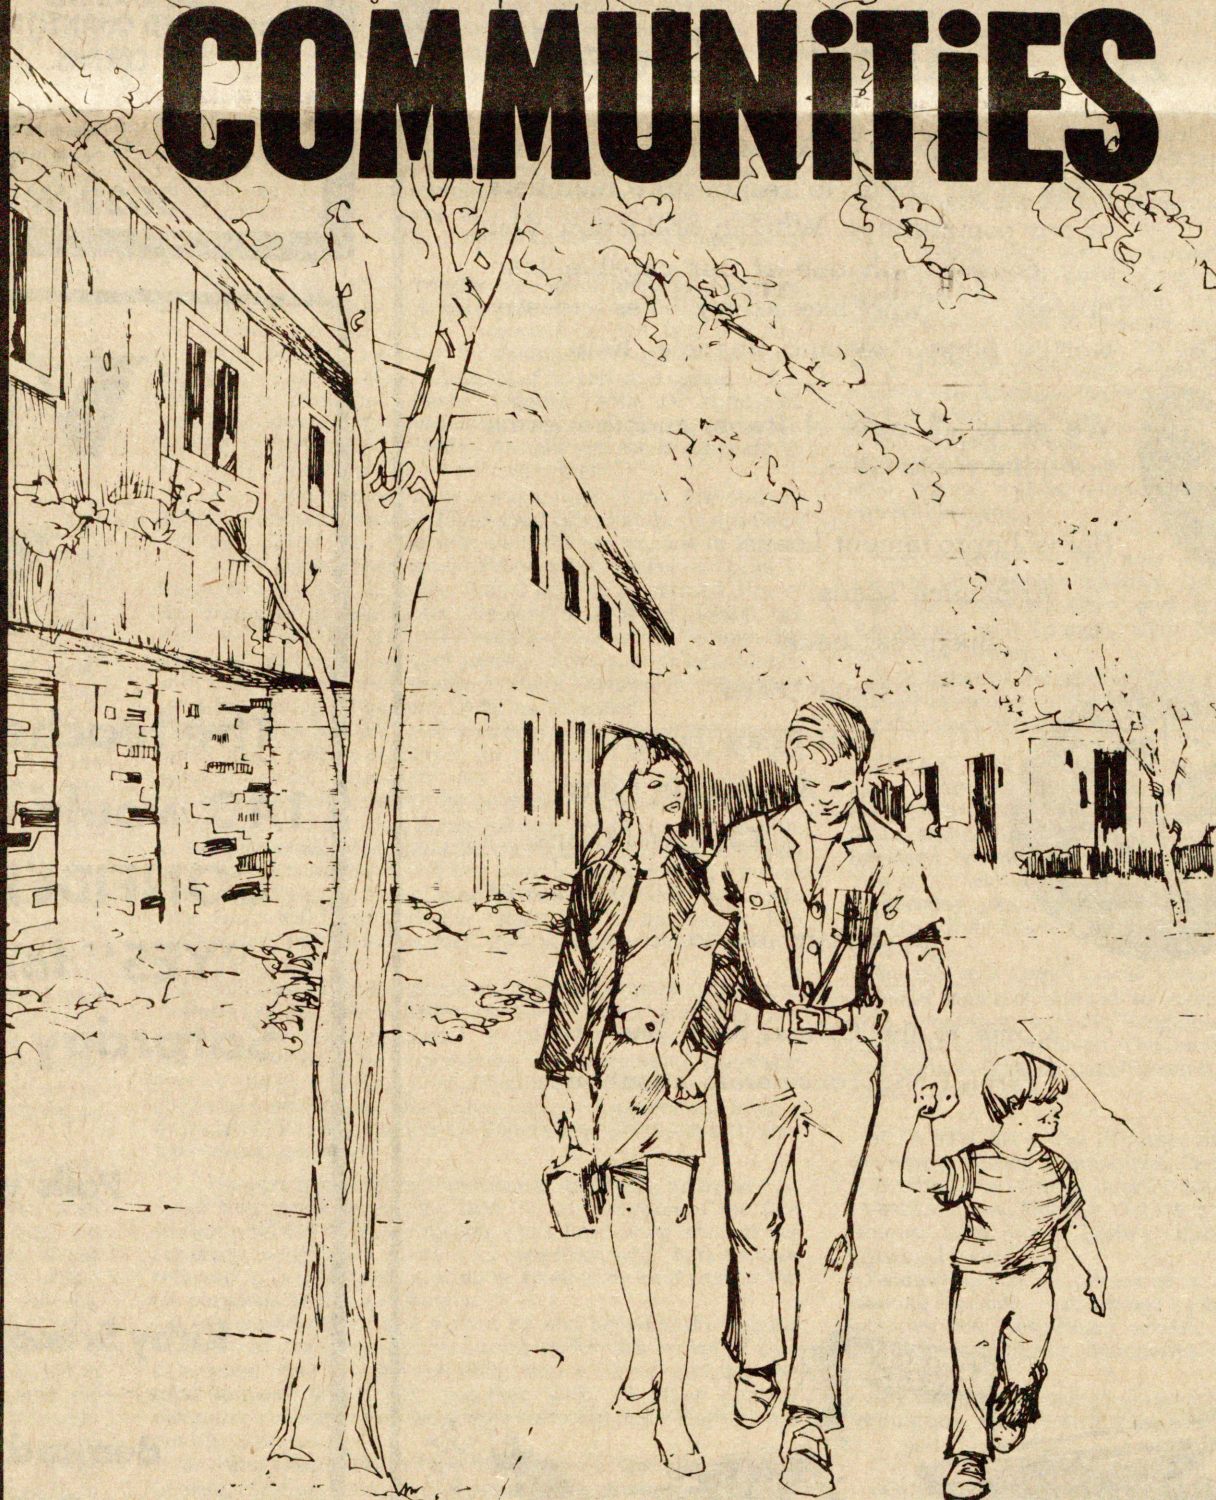

Sandburg gals top: 10 for 12

ORLAND PARK — Last week the Carl Sandburg girls' swim team posted a convincing 73-31 victory over Thornwood. The Eagle tankwomen captured 10 firsts out of 12 events which showed Sandburg's dominance in the meet.

Taking firsts were Gail Johnson in the 200 free style; Marilyn Staekle in the 100-yard individual medley and the 100-yard backstroke; Becky Boyich in the 50-yard backstroke; and Gloria Johnson in the 50-yard breaststroke. Peggy Cox took the 50 and 100-yard free style and Cindy Messmake in diving and was a member of both winning relay teams.

Coach Barbara Geyer commented she was pleased with all the girls and intends to work hard all year in hopes of winning the conference title. The conference championship will be held at Carl Sandburg on Oct. 28 against Thornwood, Oak Lawn and Reavis.

Cats shut out St. Richards at Orland field

ORLAND PARK — The St. Michael Wildcat varsity football team of Orland Park cruised to another 39-0 romp over St. Richards Sunday afternoon at St. Michael's home field.

Bill Lyons, the leading Wildcat rusher for the third week in a row, scored two TD's and set up four others. Tim Roth and Dennis Richards also had two touchdowns each for the high flying Wildcats.

Wildcat quarterback Pat Nelson ran the offense well and was two of four in the air. Standouts Mike Revord and Joe Manzel played excellent on defense for the Wildcats all day.

Coach Bob Price said "I'm quite pleased with the team's performance as of now. I hope to see more of the same in the weeks to come."

The Wildcats' record now stands at 3-0. Their next game will be Sunday against St. Brid at St. Michael's field. The game will begin at 1 p.m.

ORLAND PARK — The St. Michael Wildcats junior football team of Orland Park lost a tough game to the Blue Island Untouchables 7-6 Sunday in Blue Island.

Auften Close scored the Wildcats' only touchdown when he scooped up a Blue Island fumble and raced 23 yards for the score.

To be eligible to play on St. Michael's junior team, a boy must be under 110 pounds. The Wildcat starting backfield consists of Tom Scott, Rick Kesen, Bill Garen and Mark Laubacher at quarterback.

Coach Bobby Price, son of St. Michael head varsity coach Bob Price, said, "The boys really played well against a very tough Blue Island team." The juniors record now stands at 1-2. The Wildcats next game is Sunday against Hickory Hills juniors at Hickory Hills.

ORLAND PARK — There will be nine Carl Sandburg girls making high school history in Illinois by competing on gymnastic teams beginning Jan. 13 at Orland Park.

Among those taking up this challenge will be Connie Bartlett, Barrie Burkman, Rene Choisser, Betsy Hemrick, Linda Kettman, Mary Quirk, Renae Kuduk, Sue McDonald and Barb McKown. The girls will compete in six meets, five in conference and one non-conference against Tinley Park.

Try-out scoring was based on skills in free exercise, the balance team, the horse and the uneven parallel bars. Coach Joan VandeVelde said, "We have such a variety of talent it is difficult to say how the team will do." Mrs. VandeVelde also stated some good athletes were ineligible because of an Illinois High School Association ruling that girls receiving private instructions cannot compete.

5. 6. At or prior to the time of delivery of title to said fire station, Seller shall deliver to Buyer all necessary contractors' and subcontractors' affidavits and all necessary waivers and releases from all persons who have performed work and labor on or in connection with, furnished services in connection with, or supplied equipment, materials or supplies to or in connection with the construction of said fire station, together with a report of Chicago Title and Trust Company to evidence that the owners title policy will be extended to assure that no mechanics' lien claims shall be claimed or filed against the fire station referred to in paragraph 1.

7. The Supervising Architect shall generally oversee the construction of said building and shall perform the duties and execute the certificates and other papers provided to be performed or executed by the Supervising Architect as in this agreement provided.

8. The certificate of the Supervising Architect, addressed to Seller and Buyer, certifying that the construction of the fire station referred to in paragraph 1 has been completed in accordance with said plans and specifications hereinafore referred to in paragraph 1, shall be binding on said parties for all purposes of this agreement.

9. It is understood and agreed by and between the parties hereto that the payments required under the terms of this agreement shall be a general obligation of Buyer, and that the total amount due Seller, together with all other general obligations of Buyer, are within the statutory and constitutional debt limitations.

St. Michaels to survey parents

ORLAND PARK — In a brief get acquainted meeting St. Michael School Board of Education met Tuesday evening, Oct. 3.

Three of the six newly elected board members were present; Mrs. Jeanette Wood, Mrs. Carol Gobby; and Howard Manning.

A tentative date was set for the entire board to meet with the 27-member faculty and spouses on Fri., Nov. 10. Mrs. Gobby will handle details for the special session.

Board Chairman Felix Germino appointed Robert Boucek to head a committee to review the school board's constitution. A preliminary report is due in January. Germino said he would appoint a chairman for the finance and personnel committees.

Board members agreed to consider another survey of parents requesting their opinions and comments on the operation of the school. In addition the board will continue its evaluation of the school's effectiveness and will again survey Sandburg High School seniors for those who are graduates of St. Michael Grade School.

Principal Sister Mary Eunice said 97 replies from a possible 114 were received regarding the Washington trip. 90 families preferred a trip to Washington and seven opted for the Springfield trip.

Germino reminded the board members that any such a trip is not a function of the board and is strictly a responsibility of the parents. The board is on record as being in agreement with Archdiocesan policy which says that such long trips for eighth grade students should be discouraged.

Meeting nights have been changed to the first Monday of the month during November and December.

College testing underway

ORLAND PARK — Registration for the PSAT-NMSQT test for Carl Sandburg High School juniors will be held Wed. and Thurs., Oct. 11-12, in the school cafeteria. The cost is $3.50. The test will be given Sat., Oct. 28.

The purpose of the PSAT-NMSQT test is to help juniors assess ability to do college work, evaluate plans for college and to choose courses for the senior year.

It also prepares students for the College Board Scholastic Aptitude test which many colleges and universities require of applicants.

The SAT, Scholastic Achievement Test, will be given Sat., Nov. 4, at Sandburg, which is a test center. On Dec. 2 Sandburg is a test center for both the SAT, and the College boards.

James Adcock, guidance director at Sandburg is also planning a financial aid workshop at 7:30 p.m. Tues., Oct. 24, for both parents and students to explore means of receiving financial assistance to meet costs of attending college.

Parents night at Tinley High

TINLEY PARK — Mom and Pop will have a chance to see first-hand what their students do each day in high school beginning at 7:30 p.m. Tues., Oct. 17, when Tinley Park High School has scheduled its annual open house.

The parents of all the students will receive in the mail an invitation to attend and a blank schedule which their teen-agers should fill out.

The usual 55 minute class periods will be shortened to ten minutes, but other parts of a typical school day will be as usual. Teachers will give the parents a quick introduction to the courses they teach. During the scheduled lunch hour or "after school" the visitors are invited to the cafeteria for coffee and cake.

Besides visiting the classrooms all guests are welcome to visit the library, gyms, special education and occupational education areas, and the guidance, attendance and general offices.

National Honor Society students will serve as guides for the visitors and will make spot announcements during the evening.

The back to school night first class will start at 7:30 p.m. and seventh period will end at 9:10 p.m.

Doughnut Day Saturday

ORLAND PARK — Members of the Sandburg High School Boosters Club will canvass the community Saturday, Oct. 14, during the group's annual doughnut sale.

Student and adult members of the club will have 1,000 dozen doughnuts to sell as a fund raising event during the door-to-door coverage of Orland Park and the surrounding area.

Tuesday night Phil Ashbeck of the Chicago White Sox met with the Boosters during the group's monthly meeting to make plans for the basketball game to be held this winter between the White Sox and Sandburg faculty members.

The White Sox will hold an autograph session during intermission. The grand prize for the evening will be a White Sox autographed bat to be given away to a member of the audience.

Pack 385 to meet

OAK FOREST — Cub Scout Pack 385 will resume pack meetings at 7:30 p.m. Fri., Oct. 13, at the Faith United Presbyterian Church, 6200 W. 167th St. Boys 8-10½ years old have been welcomed to attend and must be accompanied by at least one parent. Further information may be obtained by calling Ray McKay cubmaster, 687-5696.
